

2017 Capital Gain Distribution Estimates

Throughout the year, IronBridge Funds realize gains and losses from selling securities held in their portfolios. Tax law requires mutual funds to distribute the net gains from these sales to shareholders by year-end. To help with your 2017 tax planning, listed below are the IronBridge Funds' expected capital gain distributions based on fund transactions through October 31, 2017.

Please remember that the following amounts are estimates and may vary from the actual distributions. The amount of the capital gains distributions you receive will be reported on your year-end account statement (mailed in January) and on your Form 1099-DIV.
